the Stable Manager, Ryan's Stable Employee's explanation that he sustained an injury when getting OCEAN TEMPTRESS ready was accepted.

PHAROH JAKE lost its right fore shoe on the way to the start. As the trainer had not stated at declarations that the gelding should be withdrawn in the event it lost a shoe, PHAROH JAKE was allowed to run.

PERFECT PASTIME, drawn 5, anticipated the start and accelerated the gate at the same moment as the race had been started. Being satisfied that it was not caused through a faulty action of the starting stalls, no further action was taken.

Following the race, the Veterinary Officer reported that PHAROH JAKE, unplaced, was suffering from heat stress, Luke Catton reported that PICKET LINE, unplaced, was never travelling and Tristan Price reported that the saddle of OCEAN TEMPTRESS, unplaced, slipped.

An enquiry was held to consider why George Margaron, was running TECHNOLOGICAL here at Windsor on going described as Good to Firm, having declared the colt a non-runner at Salisbury on 27 June 2018 on ground with the same official description. The trainer stated that he travelled to Salisbury with the intention of running TECHNOLOGICAL, however, after walking the course he had concerns over the covering of grass on the track and that parts were quicker than described. Having walked the course today, he is happy to allow TECHNOLOGICAL to run.
