THE JOIN FITZDARES FOR A PERSONAL SERVICE HANDICAP STEEPLE CHASE (CLASS 4) (GBB RACE)

DANGEROUS TOUCH (IRE) ran without its declared tongue tie as it was unable to be fitted to the gelding prior to the race. Olly Murphy's representative reported post-race he felt that running without it did not affect the performance of DANGEROUS TOUCH (IRE) on this occasion.

An enquiry was held to consider interference approaching the final fence involving LOKI'S MISCHIEF (FR), placed second, ridden by Jack Stenhouse, and JOE COTTON (IRE), placed fourth, ridden by Lorcan Williams, when Williams appeared to have been moved off his intended line while correcting his mount from hanging left-handed. Being a 7lb claiming conditional, Stenhouse was offered the opportunity to be accompanied but declined. The riders were interviewed and shown recordings of the incident. Having viewed the available footage and considered the evidence, the Stewards were unable to determine that interference had occurred.

Following the race, Lorcan Williams reported that JOE COTTON (IRE), placed fourth, hung left-handed.

Race 6 - 3:10pm .

THE CUTLER AND GROSS HANDICAP HURDLE RACE (CLASS 3)

Permission was given for WATAMU to wear a red hood to post.
